

1. In the following Latin American countries, separation of church and state has been effected:

Brazil	1890
Chile	1925
Cuba	1901
El Salvador	1871
Guatemala	1871
Haiti*	1830
Honduras	1880
Mexico	1853
Nicaragua	1894-1908
Panama	1903
Uruguay	1919

* Despite the separation, some governments continue to give financial aid to the church. Furthermore, in Haiti, church-state relations are at present very close.

been effected in the following:

Argentina

Bolivia

Colombia*

Costa Rica

Dominican Republic

Ecuador

Paraguay

Peru

Venezuela

* Although church and state were separated in Colombia on June 15, 1853, the present official position of the church is so closely intertwined with the government that separation cannot be considered in effect in any way.

 While church and state in Venezuela have been separated de facto at various times, the state continues to exercise control over church administration and supply financial support.
